PART IX

AMENDMENTS TO THE INCOME TAX ACT, 1973

23.-(1) This Part shall be read as one with the Income Tax Act, 1973 and shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) be deemed to have come into operation on 1st July, 1977.

(2) The provisions of section 25 shall come into, operation on 1st January, 1978.

24. Subsection (3) of section 19 is repealed and replaced by the following subsection:-

"(3) For the purpose of ascertaining the gains or profits of any business carried on in the United Republic no deduction shall be allowed in respect of any expenditure incurred outside the Partner States by a non-resident person other than expenditure which the Commissioner determines that adequate consideration has been given; and, in particular, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of expenditure-

- (a) on remuneration for services rendered by the non-resident directors (other than whole-time service directors) of a non-resident company the directors of which company have a controlling interest in the company, in excess of five per cent of the total income of the company, calculated before the deduction of that expenditure, or of twenty-five thousand shillings in respect of all those directors taken together, whichever is the greater, so, however, that in no case shall a deduction be allowed in excess of one hundred and fifty thousand shillings;

Construction and commencement Acts, 1973 No. 33

Section 19 of Acts, 1973 No. 33 amended

- (b) on executive and general administrative expenses except to the extent that the Commissioner may determine the expenditure to be reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances."

Section 34 of
Acts, 1973
No. 33
amended

25. Section 34 of the Income Tax Act, 1973 is amended by adding immediately below subsection (2) the following new subsection:-

"(2A)-(a) Every person shall, upon payment of any amount to any person resident or having a permanent establishment in the United Republic in respect of any fee, charge or like consideration for the carriage of goods by road, which is chargeable to tax, deduct from that amount tax at the rate of two per cent of the gross amount payable:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply-

- (i) in any case where the amount is payable by an individual, unless the amount payable is in excess of twenty thousand shillings;
- (ii) in any case where the amount is payable to any person other than an individual, unless that person carries on business comprising solely the carriage of goods by road for hire or reward;
- (iii) in any case where the carriage of the goods concerned is done, by any person in the course of their exportation from the United Republic.

(b) No deduction shall be made under paragraph (a) of subsection from any payment which is income exempt from tax under this Act, or to which any order made under paragraph (c) of this subsection applies.

(c) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, exempt from the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection any payment or class of payments made by any Person or category of persons resident or having a permanent establishment in the United Republic "

Section 61 of
Acts 1973
No. 33
amended

26. Section 61 of the Income Tax Act, 1973 is amended by re-numbering subsection (1) as subsection (1c), and by inserting in that section immediately before subsection (1) as re-numbered the following new subsections: -

"(1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require any person or category of persons that carries on business to keep proper accounts and other records in relation to his business, and may further require, that person or category of persons to prepare statements of accounts in such form and in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

(IA.) Where any person receives any payment of an amount of one thousand shillings or more in respect of goods sold or services rendered by him in the ordinary course of his business, then, notwithstanding any custom in any trade or any provision to the contrary in this Act or any other written law or any agreement between the parties to the sale or the contract of services, as the case may be, he shall issue a receipt to the person making the payment and the person issuing the receipt shall enter or cause to be entered in the receipt and its duplicate copy the following particulars:-

- (a) the date on which the payment is made;
- (b) the full name and address of the person who sold the goods or, as the case may be, rendered the services;
- (c) a full description of the goods sold or the services rendered and a statement of the quantity and value of the goods or, in the case of services, the amount charged in respect of the services rendered;
- (d) the full name and address of the person to whom the goods were sold or to whom the services were rendered, as the case may be;
- (e) such other particulars as the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, specify from time to time for the purposes of this section.

(113.) Every person who issues a receipt under subsection (1A) shall retain in his records the duplicate copy of every receipt issued by him and shall, unless the Commissioner directs otherwise, preserve that copy for a period of not less than seven years after the year of income to which the receipt relates."

27. Section 99 of the Income Tax Act, 1973 is amended by adding immediately below subsection (1) the following new subsection: -

"(1A) Where a return of income required to, be furnished , to the Commissioner under section 57 in respect of the income of a person is required to be prepared and certified in accordance with the provisions of section 60, the due date of payment of tax on that return shall be the date on which the return was due to be submitted to the Commissioner."
