No. 15 OF 1965

I ASSENT,

Julius K. Nyerere

President

24TH MARCH, 1965

An Act to amend and consolidate the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals and for matters connected therewith

[-----]

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Extradition Act, 1965, and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister shall, by notice in the Gazette, appoint.

Short title and commencement

2.-(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires-
"conviction" and "convicted" do not include or refer to a conviction which under the law of some other country, is a conviction for contumacy, but the term "accused person" includes a person convicted of contumacy;

Interpretation

"extradition crime" means a crime which, if committed within the jurisdiction of Tanzania, would be one of the crimes described in the Schedule to this Act;

"fugitive criminal" means any person accused or convicted of an extradition crime committed within the jurisdiction of any other country who is in or is suspected of being in Tanzania, and a reference to a fugitive criminal of a country is a reference to a fugitive criminal accused or convicted of an extradition crime committed within the jurisdiction of that country;

"magistrate" except in subsection (2) of this section, means a resident magistrate;

"Minister" means the Minister for the time being responsible for legal affairs;

"warrant" in the case of any other country, includes any judicial document authorizing the arrest of a person accused or convicted of a crime.

(2) If any fugitive criminal or other person is arrested m. pursuance of the provisions of this Act and brought before a magistrate who has no power to exercise jurisdiction under this Act, that magistrate shall have power to order such person to be brought before some magistrate having such jurisdiction, and to remand or admit such person to bail, and effect shall be given to any such order.

THE SURRENDER OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS

Application
of Part II

3.-(1) Where an agreement has been made with any country with respect to the surrender to that country of any fugitive criminal, the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that this Part of this Act shall apply in the case of that country subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be specified in the order, and this Part shall apply accordingly.

(2) An order made under this section shall recite or embody the terms of the agreement and shall not remain in force for any longer period than the agreement.

(3) Every order made under this section shall be laid before the National Assembly.

Liability of fugitive criminals to surrender

4. Subject to the provisions of section 16, where this Part of this Act applies in the case of any country, every fugitive criminal of that country who is in or suspected of being in Tanzania, shall be liable to be arrested, detained and surrendered in the manner provided by this Part of this Act-

- (a) whether the crime in respect of which the surrender is sought was committed before or after the commencement of this Act or the application of this Part of this Act to that country; and
- (b) whether there is or is not any concurrent jurisdiction in a court in Tanzania over that crime.

Requisition for surrender

5.-(1) A requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal of any country who is in or suspected of being in Tanzania shall be made to the Minister by a diplomatic representative or consular officer of that country and, upon receipt of such requisition, the Minister may, by order under his hand, signify to a magistrate that a requisition has been made and require the magistrate to issue his warrant for the arrest and detention of the fugitive criminal.

(2) If the Minister is of the opinion that the offence is one of a political character he may refuse to make an order and may also at any time order a fugitive criminal accused or convicted of such offence to be discharged from custody.

6.- (1) The warrant for the arrest of a fugitive criminal, whether accused or convicted of a crime, who is in or suspected of being in Tanzania, may be issued by a magistrate-

Issue of warrant

- (a) on the receipt of the order of the Minister and on such evidence as would, in the opinion of the magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed or the criminal convicted in that part of Tanzania in which he exercises jurisdiction; or
- (b) on such information or complaint and such evidence or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the magistrate, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the criminal convicted in that part of Tanzania in which he exercises jurisdiction.

(2) A magistrate issuing a warrant under this section without an order from the Minister shall forthwith send a report of the fact of the issue, together with the evidence and information or complaint or certified copies thereof, to the Minister who may order the warrant to be cancelled and the person who has been arrested and detained on the warrant to be discharged.

(3) A fugitive criminal when arrested on a warrant under this section shall be brought before a magistrate as soon as practicable.

(4) A fugitive criminal arrested and detained on a warrant issued without the order of the Minister shall be discharged by the magistrate unless the magistrate, within such reasonable time as, with reference to the circumstances of the case, he may fix, receives from the Minister an order signifying that a requisition has been made for the surrender of the criminal.

(5) The warrant of a magistrate issued in pursuance of this Part of this Act may be executed in any part of Tanzania in the same manner as if it had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a magistrate having jurisdiction in the place where it is executed.

7.-(1) Subject to the provisions of section 17, when a fugitive criminal is brought before a magistrate, the magistrate shall hear the case in the same manner and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as in a preliminary inquiry.

Hearing case and evidence

(2) The magistrate shall receive any evidence which may be tendered to show that the case is one to which the relevant provisions of section 16 apply or that the crime of which the prisoner is accused is not an extradition crime.

8.-(1) In the case of a fugitive criminal accused of an extradition crime, if the foreign warrant authorizing the arrest of the criminal is duly authenticated, and such evidence is produced as, subject to the provisions of this Act, would, according to the law of that part of Tanzania in which the magistrate exercises jurisdiction, justify the committal for trial of the prisoner if the crime of which he is accused was committed in such part of Tanzania, the magistrate shall commit him to prison, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

Committal or
prisoner

(2) In the case of a fugitive criminal alleged to have been convicted of an extradition crime, if such evidence is produced as, subject to the provisions of this Act would, according to the law of that part of Tanzania in which the magistrate exercises jurisdiction, prove that the prisoner was convicted of such crime, the magistrate shall commit him to prison, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

(3) If the magistrate commits such criminal to prison, he shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Minister for his surrender; and the magistrate shall forthwith send to the Minister a certificate of the committal and such report on the case as he may think fit.

Surrender of fugitive
criminal

9.(1) Whenever a magistrate commits a fugitive criminal to prison under this Part he shall inform the criminal that he will not be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days and that he has a right to apply for the issue of directions in the nature of habeas corpus.

(2) Upon the expiration of the period of fifteen days, or, if directions in the nature of habeas corpus are issued, after the decision of the court upon the return to the directions, as the case may be, or after such further period as may be allowed in either case by the Minister, the Minister may by warrant under his hand order the fugitive criminal, if not set at liberty on the decision of the court, to be surrendered to such person as is, in his opinion, duly authorized to receive the fugitive criminal by the country from which the requisition for the surrender proceeded, and the fugitive criminal shall be surrendered accordingly.

(3) Any person to whom such warrant is directed and the person so authorized as aforesaid, may receive, hold in custody and convey into the jurisdiction of that country the criminal mentioned in the warrant.

Discharge of
criminal

10. Whenever a fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison is not surrendered and conveyed out of Tanzania within two months after the committal, or if directions in the nature of habeas corpus are issued, after the decision of the court upon the return to the directions, any Judge of the High Court or of the High Court of Zanzibar may—

- (a) upon application made to him by or on behalf of the criminal; and
- (b) upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make the application has been given to the Minister,

order the criminal to be discharged out of custody unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

RECIPROCAL BACKING OF WARRANTS

Application
of Part III

11.-(1) Where the Minister is satisfied that reciprocal provision has been or will be made by or under the law of any contiguous country for the backing of warrants issued in Tanzania (or any part thereof) and their execution in that country and that it is appropriate to do so, he may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that this Part of this Act shall apply in the case of that country subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be specified in the order, and this Part shall apply accordingly.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid before the National Assembly.

12.-(1) Where a warrant has been issued in a country to which this Part of this Act applies for the arrest of a person accused of an offence punishable by law in that country and he is or is suspected of being in or on the way to Tanzania, a magistrate may, if satisfied that the warrant was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue it, endorse such warrant.

Backing of warrants issued in another country

(2) An endorsement of a warrant shall be signed by the magistrate and shall authorize all or any of the persons, named in the endorsement and every police officer to execute the warrant by arresting the person named in it and bringing him before a magistrate.

(3) A warrant endorsed under the provisions of this section shall be sufficient authority to, arrest, within the jurisdiction of the endorsing magistrate, the person named in the warrant and (to bring him before a magistrate.

(4) This Part of this Act shall apply whatever the date of the warrant and whether the offence is alleged to have been committed before or after the commencement of this Act or the application of this Part of this Act to, the country concerned.

13.(1) Notwithstanding that a warrant for the arrest of any person issued in a country to which this Part of this Act applies may not yet have been endorsed in pursuance of this Part, a magistrate may issue a provisional warrant, for the arrest of such person on such information and under such circumstances as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence of which that person is accused were an offence punishable by the law of that part of Tanzania in which he exercises jurisdiction and had been committed within his jurisdiction; and such warrant may be endorsed in the manner provided in the Criminal Procedure Code, and may be executed accordingly.

Provisional
warrant

(2) Where a person is arrested under such a provisional warrant-

Cap. 20

(a) no order may be made under section 14 for his return to the country in which the original warrant was issued unless the, original warrant is produced and endorsed in accordance with this Part of this Act; and

(b) he shall be discharged unless the original warrant is produced and endorsed within such time as the magistrate thinks reasonable in the circumstances.

14.-(1) Subject to the provisions of section 16, where a person arrested under a warrant endorsed in accordance with section 12 or a provisional warrant issued under section 13 is brought before a magistrate and, in the case of a person arrested under a provisional warrant, the original warrant has been produced and endorsed, the magistrate may, if he is satisfied-

Return of a prisoner

(a) that the warrant is duly authenticated as directed by this Act and was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue the same; and

(b) by evidence on oath, that the prisoner is the person named or otherwise described in the warrant, order the prisoner to be returned to the country in which the original warrant was issued, and for that purpose to be delivered into the custody of the persons to whom the warrant is directed or any one or more of them and to be held in custody and conveyed into that country.

(2) A person to whom the warrant is directed and the person so authorized may receive, hold in custody and convey into the jurisdiction of that country the prisoner mentioned in the warrant.

(3) A magistrate shall, so far as is requisite for the exercise of the powers of this section, have the same power, including the power to remand and admit to bail a prisoner, as he has in the case of a person arrested under a warrant issued by him.

(4) In proceedings under this section, the magistrate shall receive any evidence which may be tendered to show that the case is one to which the relevant provisions of section 16 apply.

prisoner

15.-(1) Whenever a prisoner whose return is authorized in pursuance of this Part of this Act is not conveyed out of Tanzania within one month after the date of the order for his return, a magistrate may-

- (a) upon application by or on behalf of the prisoner; and
- (b) upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make the application has been given to the person holding the warrant and to the inspector-General of Police or chief officer of the police of the region or town where the prisoner is in custody; and
- (c) unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, order the prisoner to be discharged out of custody.

(2) Without prejudice to any application for directions in the nature of a writ of habeas corpus in respect of anything purporting to be done under this Part, any order or refusal to make an order of discharge under subsection (1) of this section may be the subject of an appeal to, a High Court.

(3) If, in any proceedings under this Part of this Act which are brought to his attention, the Minister is of opinion that the offence is one of a political character, he may order a person arrested under this Part to be discharged from custody.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO SURRENDER AND RETURN

(a) Restrictions

Restriction on surrender or return

16.-(1) Subject to the provisions of section 17, no fugitive criminal shall be surrendered and no person arrested under Part III of this Act shall be returned-

- (a) if the offence in respect of which his surrender is required, or the offence specified in the warrant, as the case may be, is one of a political character or if it appears that the requisition for the surrender, or the application for endorsement of a warrant and the return of the person named therein, has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish him for an offence of a political character; or
 - (b) if the fugitive criminal or the person arrested is accused of some offence triable by a court in Tanzania or is undergoing sentence under any conviction in Tanzania, until after he has been discharged, whether by acquittal or on the expiration of his sentence or otherwise.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of section 28, a fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered under Part II of this Act—
- (a) unless provision is made by the law of the country to which he is to be surrendered, or by agreement, that the fugitive criminal shall not, unless he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to Tanzania, be detained or tried in that country for any offence committed prior to his surrender other than an extradition crime proved by the facts on which the surrender is grounded; or
 - (b) until the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his being committed to prison to await his surrender.
- (3) Where the return of a prisoner is sought or arranged under Part III of this Act, and it appears to the magistrate that by reason of the trivial nature of the case, or by reason of the application for the return of the prisoner not being made in good faith in the interests of justice, or otherwise, it would, having regard to the distance, to the facilities of communication and to all the circumstances of the case, be unjust or oppressive or too severe a punishment to return the prisoner either at all or until the expiration of a certain period, the magistrate may discharge the prisoner either absolutely or on bail or order that he shall not be returned until after the expiration of the period named in the order or may make such other order in the matter as the magistrate thinks proper.
- (4) Without prejudice to any application for directions in the nature of a writ of habeas corpus in respect of anything purporting to be done under Part III of this Act, an order or refusal to make an order of discharge under subsection (3) may be the subject of an appeal to a High Court.

17.-(1) Where, in any proceedings under Part II or III of this Act, it is alleged that the offence in respect of which the surrender or return of any person is required is one of a political character or that the requisition or application has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish such person for an offence of a political character, the magistrate shall, after recording such evidence as may be tendered on such issue, refer the same, together with the copy of the record of the evidence to the Minister and adjourn the proceedings pending the receipt by the magistrate of the Minister's certificate or a statement that the Minister declines to give a certificate in the case.

Procedure where offence alleged to be political

(2) Where an issue is referred to the Minister under this section, the Minister shall either-

- (a) certify that he is satisfied or that he is not satisfied that the offence is one of a political character or that the requisition or application has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish the person concerned for an offence of a political character; or
- (b) inform the magistrate that he declines to give a certificate.

(3) Where the Minister gives a certificate on any issue referred to him under this section, the issue shall be determined in accordance with the certificate and such determination of that issue shall be binding upon the magistrate and a High Court.

(4) Where the Minister informs the magistrate that he declines to give a certificate on an issue referred to him under this section, the issue shall be determined as if this section had not been enacted.

(b) Evidence

Evidence

18.-(1) Depositions or statements on oath or affirmation taken in the country concerned and copies of the original depositions or statements and official certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of conviction may, if duly authenticated, be received in evidence in any proceedings under this Act.

(2) In addition to any other means by which the same may be proved, a magistrate or a High Court—

- (a) shall take judicial notice of any law of a country by which the surrender of a fugitive criminal is required which makes provision for any such matter as is referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 16, if an official copy of such law is produced and certified by the Minister responsible for foreign affairs or a diplomatic representative or consular officer of that country to be in force;
- (b) may receive as prima facie evidence of any such agreement as is referred to in the said paragraph a certificate to that effect by such Minister or diplomatic representative or consular officer aforesaid.

Authorization of warrants and depositions

19.-(1) Warrants and depositions or statements on oath or affirmation and copies thereof and certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of a conviction shall be deemed duly authenticated for the purposes of this Act if authenticated in manner provided for the time being by law or-

- (a) if the warrant purports to be signed by a judge, magistrate or officer of the country where it was issued;
- (b) if the depositions or statements or the copies thereof purport to be certified under the hand of a judge, magistrate or officer of the country where they were taken to be the original depositions or statements or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require; or

- (c) if the certificate of or judicial document stating the fact of conviction purports to be certified by a judge, magistrate or officer of the country where the conviction took place; and
- if in every case the warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates and judicial documents, as the case may be, are authenticated by the oath of some witness or-
- (i) in a case to which Part II applies, by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister for the time being responsible for legal affairs, or some other Minister of State, of the country concerned; or
 - (ii) in a case to which Part III applies, by sealing in the manner aforesaid or by the signature of the Attorney General, Solicitor-General or Director of Public Prosecutions of the country concerned.
- (2) All courts and magistrates shall take judicial notice of the official seal and signatures referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of subsection (1) and shall admit any such document so authenticated in evidence without further proof.

(c) Miscellaneous

20. If a prisoner escapes, by breach of prison or otherwise, out of the custody of a person acting under a warrant issued or endorsed in pursuance of this Act or out of the custody of a person to whose custody he has been committed in accordance with this Act, he may be retaken in the same manner as a person accused of a crime against the law of that part of Tanzania to, which he escapes may be retaken upon an escape.

Escape

21. Where a warrant for the arrest of a person accused of an offence has been endorsed in pursuance of Part III of this Act, the magistrate shall have the same power of issuing a warrant to search for any property alleged to be stolen or to be otherwise unlawfully taken or obtained by such person, or otherwise to be the subject of such offence, as that magistrate would have if the property had been stolen or otherwise unlawfully taken or obtained, or the offence had been committed, wholly within the jurisdiction of such magistrate.

Search
warrants

22.-(1) The Chief Justice of Tanzania may make rules of court for appeals to a High Court under this Act.

Rules of court and forms

(2) The Minister may prescribe forms for the purposes of this Act, and forms so prescribed or forms as near thereto as the circumstances permit may be used in all matters to which such forms refer.

23. The Minister may from time to time, by order published in the Gazette, declare the countries to which Part II and Part III of this Act apply (including the countries to which Part II applies under section 28 of this Act) and, subject to any later order providing for the discontinuance of such application, the declaration shall be conclusive as to: the application of the relevant Part to countries to which it relates.

Declaration of application

Discontinuance
Cap. 1

24. Without prejudice to the generality of section 25 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance, whenever it appears to the Minister for External Affairs that an agreement with a country to which Part H of this Act applies is no longer in force (or in the case of a country to which Part II of this Act applies under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 28, that the law of that country no longer contains reciprocal provision), or that the law of a country to which Part III of this Act applies no longer makes reciprocal provision or that such provision has ceased to apply to Tanzania or any part thereof, he may, by order published in the Gazette, discontinue the application of the appropriate Part to that country.

PART V

TAKING OF EVIDENCE FOR CRIMINAL TRIALS IN OTHER COUNTRIES

Obtaining evidence in Tanzania

25.-(1) The testimony of any witness may be obtained in relation to any criminal matter pending in any court or tribunal in any other country in like manner as it may be obtained in relation to any civil matter under any rules of court or any enactment for the time being in force in that part of Tanzania in which the testimony is to be taken for the taking of evidence in relation to civil and commercial matters pending before the tribunals of other countries.

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply in the case of any criminal matter of a political nature and the provisions of section 17 of this Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to any such issue.

Taking of evidence in Tanzania for foreign criminal matters

26. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of section 25, the Minister may, by order, require a magistrate to take evidence for the purpose of any criminal matter pending in any court or tribunal in any other country.

(2) A magistrate, upon the receipt of an order made under this section, shall take down in writing the evidence of every witness appearing before him for the purpose in like manner as if the witness appeared in a preliminary inquiry and shall certify at the foot of the deposition so taken that the evidence was taken before him, and shall transmit it to the Minister.

(3) The evidence may be taken in the presence or absence of the person charged, if any, and the fact of the presence or absence shall be stated in the deposition.

(4) Any person may, after payment or tender to him of a reasonable sum for his costs and expenses in this behalf, be compelled, for the purposes of this section to attend and give evidence and answer questions and produce documents in like manner and subject to like conditions as he may in the case of a trial for an offence.

PART VI

CRIMINALS SURRENDERED TO TANZANIA

Trial of
surrendered

27.(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, where in pursuance of an agreement with another country any person accused or convicted of any crime described in the First Schedule to this Act is surrendered by that country that person shall not, until he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to that country, be triable or tried for any offence committed prior to his surrender to Tanzania other than such of the crimes as may be proved by the facts on which the surrender is grounded.

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply in relation to a person surrendered or returned to Tanzania by a country to which Part III of this Act applies.

PART VII

TRANSITIONAL, REPEAL AND APPLICATION

28.-(1) Subject to any order made under section 3 or 24-

Transitional
